FOREST DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 24th January, 1961

No. Ft. 29-256/48-III.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 41, 42, 45 and 51 of the Indian Forest Act (XVI of 1927) as applied to Himachal Pradesh, the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to issue the following rules to regulate the transit of timber on the Ghghagar river and its tributaries in the Sirmur district in Himachal Pradesh. Nothing in these rules, however, shall be held to affect the operation of the general river rules issued in Notification No. Ft. 29-256/48, dated 12th July, 1949 or to exempt any person from any penalty which he may have incurred by disregard of the said rules:—

2. Control of Ghghagar river.—For purposes of timber transit operations and collection and disposal of waif wood, the control of river Ghghagar as well as of its banks within the limits of Sirmur district is vested in the Divisional Forest Officer, Rajgarh Forest Division for the portion this river flows through his jurisdiction.

3. Registration identity marks.—All persons wishing to float or otherwise convey any timber on the Ghghagar river shall register, at the Forest Office of the Division to which the control of the river pertains the mark of or marks which indicates their proprietary right in such timber. These marks shall be a hammer mark as property and a Khuddan marks as indentify mark.

4. Registration fee.—The fees for registration of both the property and the identity marks shall be Rs. 5 per mark and if the number of marks exceed three the said fee shall be ten rupees for each marks, valid for 3 years following the first of January next after the date of registration. The Divisional Forest Officer may order the registration of as many marks as he considers necessary for the efficient control of floating operations.

5. No person shall be allowed to register a property or Khuddan mark already registered in favour of another person or Government, or so closely resembling such a marks as to be easily producable by altering the same.

6. Stamping of property mark.—All sawn or round timber to be floated must before launching into the Ghghagar river be marked on one of its ends with a deeply cut registered Khuddan mark and the registered property hammer mark must be stamped on the broad side of all timber at a distance of not more than 6 inches from one of its ends to facilitate the handling and sorting of timber at the timber of its collection.

7. Launching of timber.—No person shall launch, set afloat or otherwise convey his timber in the Ghghagar river without a launching permit, application for which should be submitted to the Divisional Forest Officer concerned at least one month before the timber is to be launched in the river. The application which should be for permission to launch and float the timber down in river and collect it at a specified place on river should contain the following information:—

1. Name and address of owner.
2. His Father's name.
3. Description of timber, including the number and dimensions of timber.
4. The property hammer mark stamped on the timber,
5. The Khuddan mark cut at the end of timber, and
6. The date on which the timber is likely to be launched.

8. Launching permit.—On receipt of the above-mentioned application the Divisional Forest Officer concerned after fixing the dates of actual launching with the approval of Divisional Forest Officer, Rupar Forest Division of Punjab may issue a permit in writing for the conveyance of the timber from the launching depot in accordance with the rules and for its collection at a place specified in the permit. The permit will give the particulars above detailed after fixing the dates of actual launching with approval of Divisional Forest Officer, Rupar Forest Division of Punjab and specify the places at which the timber may be stopped when required by the Divisional Forest Officer for regulation of traffic on its passage down, the said river within Himachal Pradesh territory.

9. Launching fee.—The launching and floating fees payable on all timber for which permits are issued will be at such rate per hundred pieces as the Divisional Forest Officer may fix. The rate will be published by the Divisional Forest Officer concerned on or before the 1st July each year and shall remain in force for 12 months from the date and shall be recoverable before the issue of the permit.

10. Labour.—Every person launching his timber in the Ghghar river and its tributaries, or his contractor, shall keep men on his ghals according to the following minimum scale:—

- (i) In smaller streams 6 men per thousand B.G. sleepers of all species.
- (ii) In the large streams 4 men per thousand B.G. sleepers of all species.
- (iii) In the main Ghghar river two men per thousand B.G. sleepers of Deodar, Kail, Fir and Spruce and 3 men per thousand B.G. sleepers of Chir (including Sarnaiwalas).
- (iv) In the Ghghar river, one man per thousand B.G. sleepers and 2 men per thousand B.G. sleepers of Chir (including sarnaiwalas).

11. Any ghal with which the staff, as laid down in rule 10 above, is not maintained must give way to a ghal properly staffed following it if the latter so desires, i.e. the ghal not upto strength may be stopped to allow the ghal behind but staffed upto strength.

12. Every person launching his timber in the Ghghar river or his contractor shall keep the following number of chaukidars with each ghal to prevent loss from theft.—

ON GHGHAR RIVER

Chir and Kail ghals	3 Chaukidar per sleepers.	5000 B.G.
Deodar ghals	1 Chaukidar per sleepers.	100 B.G.

13. Ghal agents.—Each permit-holder shall employ an agent to accompany his ghal under intimation to the Divisional Forest Officer. The agent shall produce launching permit, muster rolls of labour and Chaukidars employed on demand by any Forest Officer failing which his ghal will be liable to be detained.

14. Priority of passage at the junction of stream.—When two ghals approach the junction of two streams the ghal whose head reached the junction first shall have priority of passage provided that (a) such ghal has not been deliberately extended to reach the junction first; (b) it is accompanied by sufficient labour to clear the junction within 8 days.

15. Control of fixed ghal.—When two or more ghals get accidentally mixed, each permit-holder shall maintain the minimum strength of labour mentioned in rule 10. Failure to do this will render the defaulter to pay for short supply of labour to make up the deficiency in the minimum strength required by employing more men. Where both banks are not equally easy to work from ghal agents will arrange to change sides at intervals of not more than 20 days.

16. Stranded timber.—Stranded timber of a ghal will be brought down by the ghal following. These will be paid for at rates fixed by the Divisional Forest Officer. Where timber of ghal is carried forward by the current into a ghal going ahead nothing will be payable.

17. Rights of permit-holders to open water mills or irrigation bunds and responsibilities as to rebuilding them.—Permit-holders floating in the side alas or khads draining into the river Ghghar within Himachal Pradesh territory are empowered to open any weir or bund built for the purpose of a water mill or irrigation channel, subject to the following regulations:—

- (a) that no such bund or weir shall remain open for more than 12 hours in any one day.
- (b) that before the expiry of the 12 hours mentioned in (a) above, the weir or bund shall have been repaired by the permit-holders' men so that a sufficient supply of water passes into the channel concerned,
- (c) that when all timber has passed any weir or bund the permit-holder shall put it in complete repairs at his own expense.

18. The names of the owners of water mills for the running of which there is normally sufficient water, throughout the year shall be registered in the office of the Divisional Forest Officer concerned.

19. A list of all irrigation channels shall be maintained by the Divisional Forest Officer concerned together with names of villages irrigated by each.

20. No weir or bund for water mills irrigation purposes which did not exist prior to 1st July, 1921 will be registered unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Divisional Forest Officer that such weir or bund is a serious necessity to the locality.

21. Compensation for opening bunds and channels.—Except in the event of a breach by the permit-holder of the terms of rule 10 no compensation shall be payable for the opening of the bunds.

22. Un-marked timber to be the property of Government.—All un-marked wood and timber in the Ghghar river and its tributaries in Himachal Pradesh territory including an area within a direct distance of five miles from either bank of the main stream of the said river taking the stream at its cold season level situated within Himachal Pradesh shall be deemed to be the property of Himachal Pradesh Administration, until, and unless any person establishes his right and title thereto.

Note.—Un-marked unsawn timber less than 4 feet in length and 2 feet in girth may be utilized for burning the dead, but for other purposes no person may remove any timber unless it is un-marked, unsawn and can be carried in a basket or killa.

23. Collection of wood and grass.—Persons employed on floating timber shall be entitled to take from waste land on the bank of the river or streams such dry felled wood and grass as may be required for their floating operations.

Ordinarily these products being of no value will be utilized free of charge but in exceptional cases when special damage can be proved to have been done, claims to compensation for both wood and grass combined will be considered on the basis of anna 1 per 1000 pieces of timber per mile of river frontage for both banks.

For grass and wood taken from private land the person taking it will make his own arrangements with owners of the land.

24. Complaint.—Any complaint on the part of a permit holder, or his agent, or and water-mills owner or other zamindar concerned shall in the first instance be made to the river guard concerned but may at the same time be sent direct to the Divisional Forest Officer who will forward it to the Conservator of Forests, in charge of the circle to which the complaint pertains.

25. Penalties.—Any person who infringes any of these rules shall be liable under section 42 of the Indian Forest Act (XVI of 1927) to imprisonment for a term which may extend to 6 months or fine which may extend to Rs. 500 or both.

By order,

V. P. AGARWALA,
Secretary.
